

The Cleaning Constitution

General rules

1. Everyone chips into the cleaning of the house.
2. If you make a mess in an area that is not yours to clean for the week, you still clean up after yourself.
3. Please make sure you've done your respective task either on Saturday or Sunday, that way we can enter the week with a clean house.
4. If you have not done your part by Monday morning, you pay a single fine of £3 into the house pot.
 - a. House pot can be used for joint activities or decorations for the house.
 - b. If you cannot be in the house on Saturday or Sunday, either make sure your task has been done by Friday night or Monday night.
 - i. If this isn't possible (say you have left for the week), pay the £3 fine and the rest of the house will complete your task, or you can arrange something else.

5. £1 fines

Fines to be paid in cash. If you don't have cash, Ben will make a note of whoever owes the pot.

- a. Leaving the bathroom or toilet in an untidy state.
 - b. Hair in bathtub/sink.
 - c. Skid marks in toilet.
 - d. Significant food/stains on the hob.
